

PERFORMING ARTISTS COLLECTIVE ALLIANCE

1505 State St. Erie, PA • (814)616-PACA • paca1505.org

Kerrylee Hinkson (Chris) is so happy to be part of such a hilariously dynamic cast and crew in the fun adventure that is this play. Getting to laugh so much and express a story with humor has been nourishing. She was recently seen onstage as Sandra in We Hate A Haunting at PACA's Original Works weekend. Her Pole of Inaccessibility exists where certainty is free of second guessing.

Julia LaCoe (Assistant Stage Manager) Julia is thrilled to be involved with this show and amazing group of people! Support theater in Erie, it's awesome! Yippee!

Sophia Santiago (Misha/Jo/Wei) is excited to be returning to PACA, having appeared in last year's production of Avenue Q as Christmas Eve. She is thrilled to have the opportunity to work with such talented people! Sophia's Pole of Inaccessibility is the bathroom during performances, as she's too paranoid of missing her cue to risk it.

AJ Holman (Dad/ Rene/Avery/ Dock Worker) is thrilled to be back at PACA and a part of this cast and crew. The most recent performances at said theatre have been Cole in WE HATE A HAUNTING and as Benard in THE BOYS IN THE BAND. His Point of Inaccessibility would be keeping and finishing a tube of chapstick.

Marnie Foss (Mom/Sasha/Alex/Old Russian Leader) is excited to shamble her way on the PACA stage again in this funny and whimsical adventure. When not volunteering at many artistic non-profits, she can be found working at the Erie Food Co-op, and trying to entice all the neighborhood urban fauna to be her friend. Marnie's pole of inaccessibility is operating a moving vehicle.

Renée Tellers (stage manager) is excited to be back behind the scenes for this PACA production. In her free time, Renée cohosts a history podcast called Time Tellers, plays violin and sings in her band Comic Book Villains and crochets intricate blankets. She last graced the PACA stage as Stephanie in POTUS. Renée's pole of inaccessibility is remembering how to count while crocheting and finishing her TBR pile.

Zachery Hoffman (Director) is very excited to be presenting JOURNEY TO THE POLES OF INACCESSIBILITY. He last co-directed the production of RADIUM GIRLS. He is very excited to bring this light hearted and playful production to life. He has thoroughly enjoyed his time at PACA and serves as the Box Office Manager. Zach was last seen as Emory in BOYS IN THE BAND and as the iconic Ned/ Ruthie duo in BAT BOY. Zach also is the Director of the Theatre Club at Voices for Independence. He is the owner and Supervisor for Hoffman Behavior Consulting, LLC. When Zach is not in the theatre he is a Special Education Teacher for Erie's Public Schools. Zach's Pole of Inaccessibility is an uneven sidewalk.

Jasse Camacho Vera (Aunt Pat/Jimi/Spanish Explorer) is happy to be returning to PACA, having last been seen in the two-person cast of MAKING OF A CAT LADY as part of PACAPALOOZA 2022. Recent credits include The Regular in TETHERED: IMMERSIVE THEATRICAL EXPERIENCE, Lysander in TWELFTH NIGHT, Mitch Mahoney in THE 25TH ANNUAL PUTNAM COUNTY SPELLING BEE, and helping produce GODSPELL in conjunction with Voices for Independence's Theatre Club. His greatest pole of inaccessibility is PACA's execution chamber, or rather, its severely outdated elevator. Therefore, he humbly asks that you find it in your hearts to donate to PACA's fundraising campaign in the name of keeping him alive. Please. @jasse.cam

Allexandria Coles (Assistant Director) is just delighted to be a part of this kooky and wondrous spectacle. Alex has spent the majority of her recent performing arts activities on the teaching side, previously acting as Theatre Director at the Neighborhood Art House and as staff on the production team for Godspell at Voices for Independence. Allex's Pole of Inaccessibility is a double time step because, naturally, a triple should just be harder.

Mitchell King (Dylan) is thrilled to be in his first (of hopefully many) show at PACA. He has been acting for 22 years in Meadville, where he was most recently seen onstage at The Academy Theatre in The Producers as Franz. Some of his favorite roles include Paul Sheldon (Misery), Ethan (The Full Monty), and Aaron (First Date). His personal Pole of Inaccessibility is reading the vibe of a room or what everyone else is going for with their Poles of Inaccessibility.
